[illegible] Day at Philadelphia.

[illegible], Oct. 26.—This is Ohio day and the [illegible] at the Centennial. The attendance [illegible] greatly great. Among the crowds [illegible] grounds are a great number of Ohio [illegible] interest in the suitable observance [illegible] to the general interest awakened [illegible] the ground of Gov. Hayes gives [illegible] that has hardly been [illegible] on Pennsylvania's day. [illegible] convention of merchants at [illegible] State building on the Centennial [illegible] a social than strictly business like [illegible] Philadelphia merchants left the Court [illegible] and proceeded to Front on [illegible] special cars to the Pennsylvania [illegible] depot, and met the New [illegible] visitors. The entire party then [illegible] building through the gate where [illegible] welcome was delivered by Geo. W. [illegible] Philadelphia Commercial Exchange [illegible] escorted to the municipal building [illegible] cold lunch was served for these visitors. [illegible] in addition to the Com[illegible] board of brokers, Druggists [illegible] Exchange, and Maritime Ex[illegible] this city, the Commercial Exchange [illegible] and Produce Exchange, and [illegible] of New York, and delegates from [illegible] Buffalo, Chicago, Cincinnati, Milwaukee and other cities were [illegible].

[illegible] entered the Ohio State building [illegible] by Gen. Hawley in a short [illegible] the governor spoke as follows: [illegible] people of Ohio, I desire to make acknowledgments to all of the Com[illegible] for the reception and cordial [illegible] us. I desire also on behalf of the [illegible] our appreciation of the [illegible] presence of the Centennial [illegible] from foreign countries who are [illegible] their respective representative [illegible] representatives of the executive [illegible] government in charge [illegible] exhibit and to the Centennial [illegible] our sister States who have [illegible] their welcome presence, also to [illegible] citizens of other States and [illegible] our own, who are here to join [illegible]. The citizens of Ohio [illegible] in this celebration and [illegible] by its success. If events are [illegible] by their results the work and the [illegible] the national government may [illegible] by the people of all the [illegible] more heartily than by the peo[illegible] independence was declared [illegible]. Over all that is now Ohio [illegible] unbroken wilderness. What is [illegible] with three million inhabitants [illegible] than that possessed by the [illegible] achieved their independence [illegible]; it is not for us, fellow citizens [illegible] the growth, progress and pros[illegible] very instructive address on all [illegible] delivered some weeks ago by a [illegible] of our State. We are here to-[illegible] Ohio upon the invitation of the [illegible] of our State, to complete [illegible] exercises on our part con[illegible] original invitation of the [illegible]. It is not for us to [illegible] that our homes are [illegible] for us, to say [illegible] grateful that our lives [illegible], and that we have such [illegible] Ohio has been signally honored [illegible] of one of her citizens as the [illegible] of this grand enterprise. We are [illegible] Goshorn has so discharged [illegible] that his name will be hon[illegible] in connection with this ex[illegible] as citizens of Ohio to compli[illegible] the citizens of Philadelphia and [illegible]vania on the fortunate issue [illegible]. It is mainly to their en[illegible] the great burden devolved, [illegible] the lion's share of the glory of [illegible]. This Centennial exhibition is [illegible]. It will not be forgotten. [illegible]. It will live in the minds [illegible] linked with the recollections [illegible] work it has so fully com[illegible] hope that the influence of this [illegible] be to extend and perpetuate the [illegible] revolutionary ancestors and to [illegible] to all mankind that what [illegible] forth on this continent a hun[illegible] fixed under Providence long [illegible] of freedom and the refuge of [illegible].

[illegible] finished his tour and was urged [illegible] the commercial exchanges [illegible] and where he was warmly received [illegible] accepting the welcome as [illegible] not to himself. He was gratified [illegible] him by the citizens of [illegible] by saying whatever would [illegible] political strife we should all [illegible] Americans. He was heartily [illegible].

[illegible] given a reception at the Union [illegible] prominent persons were pres[illegible] Hartranft, Ex Secretary Borie, [illegible] Mayor Stockly, Ex Gov. [illegible], Commodore Goldsborough, [illegible] Knight, Hon. Leonard Myers, [illegible] Gen. Selfridge and others. Gov. [illegible] to reply, addressed an immense [illegible] up the broad stairs. He was in[illegible] president of the League and re[illegible] here as representative [illegible] the exhibition on what was called [illegible] to see the hearty manner in [illegible] has endeavored to celebrate [illegible] go back to Ohio to say to my [illegible] Philadelphia and Pennsylvania are [illegible] work with a spirit and in a man[illegible] the heart of a Buckeye good. The [illegible] to the banqueting room [illegible] collation was spread.

L. Scott representing [illegible] Southern. They unanimously agreed [illegible] Eastern bound freight and the [illegible] settlement of railroad wars. A meeting [illegible] of the Eastern trunk lines has been called [illegible] at the office of W. H. Vanderbilt.

[illegible] Rally in New York.

[illegible] York, Oct. 26.—The long advertised Demo[illegible] came off here this evening [illegible] failure. There were fewer than [illegible] in line, according to the Times, of whom [illegible] were boys and the other half a hard [illegible]. Tilden and Gwin were among the [illegible] who viewed the march past. Democ[illegible] in line numbered from 50,000 [illegible].

[illegible] to Speak at Cooper Institute.

[illegible] has concluded to address the [illegible] Institute on Wednesday.

[illegible] in the Sullivan Case.

[illegible]—The jury in the Sullivan case [illegible], and has been out locked up, [illegible] excitement here as [illegible] eleven are for an [illegible] the prosecuting attorney [illegible] Judge McAllister had some warm words as to the course of the latter in the trial.

Chicago, Oct. [illegible]—The jury in the case of [illegible] Alexander Sullivan on trial in the criminal court here for the murder of Francis Hanford came into the court room this morning and again informed the court they were unable to agree and asked to be discharged. With this request the court complied. It is understood the jury stood 11 for acquittal and 1 for conviction on that charge. There is much discussion in the city about the alleged partisan course of Judge McAllister during the entire trial, especially in his instructions to the jury. Prosecuting Attorney Reed has only intimated in court his opinion of the rulings. The feeling is to [illegible] strong that several petitions are in circulation asking McAllister to resign. The petitions at the Board of Trade have been signed by a majority of the most prominent members and embrace some 1,800 or 1,900 names. The Inter Ocean this morning editorially comments severely on the conduct of the presiding judge and charges that he has disgraced the bench by his palpable and persistent contempt of fair and laws.

The Times, on which paper Mr. and Mrs. Sullivan were formerly employed, is the only paper which approves McAllister's course.

In the afternoon session of the court after arguments had been made by counsel Judge McAllister admitted defendant to bail in $8,000. In answer to strictures on part of Mr. Reed, the court vigorously defended himself from the imputations and repeated his belief that there was no murder; that Sullivan was wronged more than wronging, and accused the prosecution of stirring up public sentiment against him by their persistent remarks about his rulings. Barry, the juror who held out for conviction, states to-night that he was abused and assailed by his fellow jurymen while they were locked up; that he was part of the time in fear of his life and that he scarcely dared to sleep.

Racing at Pimlico Track.

Baltimore, Oct. 26.—At Pimlico to-day the first race, mile dash, won by Inspiration, Piccolo 2d, Fadladeen 3d; time 1:48.

Mile heats for 3 year olds. Nine starters. First heat won by Red Coat in 1:46½, Outcast 2d, Ambush 3d. Second heat won by Ambush in 1:47½, Outcast 2d. The contest was then left between Red Coat and Ambush who ran a dead heat in 1:51¼. Ambush won the fourth heat and race in 1:53.

The free handicap for all ages, 1¾ miles, was won by Burgoyne in 3:17¼, Shylock 2d, Rappahannock 3d.

The steeple chase, about 2½ miles, was won by Resolute in [illegible]:25, Risk 2d.

Failures.

Chicago, Oct. 26.—W. M. R. Whitney filed his voluntary petition in bankruptcy this morning. His liabilities are $425,000, distributed over the northwest and New York State.

Body of C. C. Holmes Found.

New York, Oct. 26.—The body of C. C. Holmes, coffee broker, was found in the East river this morning. He left his office at 2 o'clock yesterday for home and as there are marks of violence on his body it is supposed he was the victim of foul play. Holmes arrived here from San Francisco about a year ago.

Reception to the Proverbial Philosopher.

A reception was tendered to-night in Brooklyn to Martin F. Tupper, the English poet, and William Cullen Bryant, the American poet, at the residence of Dr. DeWitt Talmadge. The guests were introduced to both poets and Mr. Peter Cooper, who was also present. Addresses were made by Tupper, Talmadge, Bryant, Mayor Schroeder and Mr. Peter Cooper.

End of Yellow Fever.

Savannah, Oct. 26.—No deaths to-day from any cause. No frost yet.

Big Horn Indian Campaign drawing to a Close.

Cheyenne, Oct. 26.—The arrival of Gen. Merritt's command at Red Cloud yesterday signalized the closing up of the Big Horn and Yellowstone campaign which will be succeeded by the Powder river expedition consisting of 15 companies of infantry and 11 companies of cavalry. The latter are principally of the 4th Regiment, with a few companies of the 2d and 3d, which have not been in the summer campaign. All are fresh troops and will be commanded by Crook in person. The 5th cavalry will have its winter headquarters at Fort Russell, Gen. Merritt in command. The 3d goes to Fort Laramie. Ten companies will remain at Red Cloud. Spotted Tail was formally installed chief of the Sioux Nation by virtue of the authority of the President and was as such accepted by all the Indians at that agency. The capture made by Gen. Merritt consisted of 500 Indians, 700 ponies and a large number of arms, the last two named to be disposed of at public auction on the 2d of November at Fort Laramie. The moral effect of this decisive policy is wholesome and peace promises to prevail at the agencies.

Disarming of Indians.

Bismarck, Oct. 26.—Gen. Terry was still at Standing Rock last evening. He had succeeded in disarming and gathering in the ponies of all the Indians at the agency. It is believed the Indians have hid most of their arms as they had a day's warning and only about two hundred stand have been found, including shotguns and revolvers. A large number of ponies will yet be brought in. About six hundred have already been surrendered. The Indians seem to take kindly to the move as they come to understand it, but some were at first disposed to resist. Gen. Terry informed them the property would be sold and the proceeds invested in cattle and such things as would be useful for them.

None outside of Gen. Terry and those immediately connected with him have any idea as to where he will go next, whether to Cheyenne or to strike the hostiles.

South Carolina's Address to the People.

Charleston, Oct. 26.—The president of the chamber of commerce has united with the Methodist, Catholic and Episcopal bishops and the leading Presbyterian, Lutheran, Baptist and Jewish ministers and the presidents of all National and other banks in Charleston in an address on the condition of South Carolina to the people of the United States which denies that the white people of South Carolina are disloyal or disaffected to the United States government; that any part of the State is in insurrection; that the laws cannot be duly enforced within the limits of the State; that any lawful cause exists for federal interference; that the white people of the state are disaffected towards the colored people, or desire to infringe on their political or civil rights; that the rifle clubs in the State are combinations against law, and that in the recent collisions the white people have been the aggressors.

Important Crooked Whisky Suit.

Des Moines, Iowa, Oct. 26.—The U. S. Circuit Court, Judge Dillon presiding, has been engaged since the 10th inst. in trying one of the most important crooked whisky suits ever brought in this country. In 1865 J. A. Rhomberg, a saloon keeper of Dubuque, started a distillery. In the winter of 1865 he paid an assessment of $191,000 on account of frauds. In 1874 he was assessed $79,000, which he refused to pay. This suit is brought to recover amount of his bonds, $110,000. The government is represented by its district attorney, Col. Lane of Davenport, and Col. Henderson of Dubuque. The trial shows the immense labor which has been performed by the counsel for the government and revenue agent Brown in unearthing the frauds. After a lapse of ten years they were fortunate in procuring the book keeper and another employe of Rhomberg's, employed by him during the time covered by the alleged frauds, who testified to the magnitude of the steals. Col. Henderson opened the case for the government in a speech of nearly eight hours. His review of the evidence of the Rhombergs and of Phil McKelger, the principal witnesses for the defense, was amusing and scathing. Col. Lane is now closing the case.

Serious Accident.

Reading, Pa., Oct. 26.—During the Democratic parade in this city to-day the railing in front of the portico of Brazer Hall gave way, precipitating about thirty persons, some of them children, to the sidewalk 18 feet below. Twelve persons were severely hurt, having sustained fractured limbs or internal injuries.

Political Speaking in New York.

New York, Oct. 26.—The announcement that Attorney General Taft and Murat Halstead would speak to-night at Cooper Union filled the great hall in every part with an audience [illegible] of lawyers [illegible] Edwin W. Stoughton [illegible]. Attorney General Taft in the course of his address spoke of his recent order to the United States marshals. He said some complaints have been made of the order to U. S. marshals [illegible]. [illegible] civil rights the 14th amendment provided that [illegible] citizen should be denied the right to vote on account of race, color or previous condition of servitude, and that Congress shall have power to enforce this article by appropriate legislation. Congress passed an act which it has been supposed would enforce the amendment. A case arose in Kentucky at an election of State officers only, for denying the right to vote to a negro. The court held that the act of Congress as passed was not appropriate legislation for the purposes of that suit. The reason can be concisely stated thus: Independent of the 15th amendment Congress has nothing whatever to do with the election of State officers. By that amendment the only power is to prevent the denial to citizens of the right to vote on account of race, color or previous condition of servitude, but this act provides a punishment for a denial of the right of voting to any citizen, white or black. This transcended the right of Congress as first stated, and was not therefore appropriate legislation. [illegible] As members of Congress and Presidential electors are by law elected at the same time and place, the election by law includes both. As stated in the order it is wholly immaterial to the marshal what the State legislature might do. It was the duty of the Attorney General to instruct what was the law under which he was to act. Congress has the power to prescribe the time, place and manner for the election of members of Congress, also to fix the time for the appointment of Presidential Electors. The State Legislature can fix the manner of appointing electors. Congress has by statute fixed the same day for the election of Congressmen and for the appointment of elector, and the State Legislatures the same place and same manner, viz: by ballot at the general election. In the present condition of legislation therefore, as is said by the order, the elections at which members of the House of Representatives are chosen by law include also the elections for President and Vice President, by which also electors are appointed, and the United States secure voters against whatever in general hinders or prevents them from a free exercise of the elective franchise, extending that care alike to registration, times, the act of voting, and personal freedom and security of voter at all times, as well against interference on account of any vote that he may intend to give as against revenge for one that he may have already given. By section 5,673 of the revised statutes of the United States it is provided that every registration made under the laws of any State or locality for any state or other election at which any representative or delegate in Congress may be chosen shall be deemed to be a registration within the meaning of the preceding section, notwithstanding such registration is also made for the purposes of any State, Territorial or municipal election. The fact that Vermont, Maine, Ohio and Indiana form exceptions to the general rules as to the time when their elections of representatives in Congress are held is immaterial. It in no matter impairs the correctness or usefulness of the order, which is an individual communication to each marshal of those four States, in neither of which were supervisors and marshals employed at the elections. The instructions were intended to give each marshal to whom they were addressed his duty under the laws as they existed then and there and when and where he was to enforce them. Congress enacted a law that all elections for representatives in Congress without exception should be held on the Tuesday after the first Monday of November, as it had the absolute right to do by the Constitution, but finding that these four States had got the time fixed differently by their State constitutions and would be embarrassed if Congress insisted on uniformity as to them, an amendment was enacted relieving such states as could not conform to the day fixed by Congress without an amendment of their constitution. These four states thus form an exception. In all the rest the representatives in Congress and electors are chosen at the same time and place and in the same manner and really at one and the same election so far as registration regulations of elections are concerned. The statute expressly provides that they all shall be elected at the same general elections, and all other states have similar provisions except Colorado, which makes its first choice of electors by its legislature. These exceptions don't in any manner affect the principle of the order, and it wasn't intended for the excepted States, as shown by the order itself, which confines its instructions to the elections to be held on Tuesday after the first Monday in November next.

It is not necessary to speak of the clause relating to the posse comitatus. It is too well known for dispute. The order is not a military order and does not assume to make any disposition of troops, but advises the marshal that if he has occasion to call out the posse, and soldiers are in his district, they may be embodied for the purpose. This was done when a master in pursuit of his fugitive slave resorted to the civil process of the United States, and the marshal meeting resistance called on [illegible] soldiers and they came and assisted to arrest and return the slave to the owner. The present application of the principle is quite as legal and a good deal more humane.

Murat Halstead followed with a speech on the merit of the Confederate war claims of the solid South. He first replied to Tilden's letter of to-day, saying that Tilden did not seem to have apprehended the extent and seriousness of the claims, and not to have paid any attention to the general legislation proposed by Congressmen Wilshire of Arkansas, Cabel of Virginia and Riddle of Tennessee. As for the restraints that Mr. Tilden imposes upon himself he should turn attention to his own letter of acceptance, in which he said experience had frequently exposed the futility of self imposed restrictions by candidates.

Fraudulent Registry.

New York, Oct. 26.—The work of correcting the registry is proceeding. About 3,000 fraudulent names have already been discovered. Alphabetical lists have been made and there will soon be wholesale arrests.

The White-Liners Call for U. S. Troops—Letter from Gov. Chamberlain.

The Tribune's Charleston special says Judge McGrath and Gen. Desaussur to-day called on Gov. Chamberlain and Gen. Ruger to request the presence of U. S. troops in Charleston county to insure peace and order at the coming election. They appeared as representatives of white citizens. Gov. Chamberlain and Gen. Ruger gave them assurance that perfect impartiality should be observed in their respective official acts. This visit of leading white citizens to seek the aid of the United States troops is regarded here as conclusive proof that the troops are not regarded as partisan agents and that the government purposes relate only to the public peace and safety. Gov. Chamberlain has transmitted to the gentlemen the following letter:

Executive Chamber, Columbia, Oct. 25, '76.

Hon. A. McGrath and Gen. A. W. Desaussur, Charleston, S. C.—Gentlemen: I had hoped after your interview this forenoon to have met you again as I then intimated to you, in company with Gen. Ruger, in order that we might confer more fully upon matters which you brought to my attention. My views and purposes were stated to you with entire frankness in our interview, but I desire again to present them in writing. I am glad of the opportunity practically to prove that in all my relations to the present canvass, and especially in seeking the aid of the military force of the United States, I am acting in the interests of our people and for the protection of the rights of the Democrats and Republicans. I expect no favor and hardly justice in the judgment pronounced upon me by my political opponents in the heat of the canvass, but you gentlemen know me well. You have in times past honored me with your confidence, and I know you will believe me when I say that I am as anxious, when I tell you that you and your political friends shall be protected by the U. S. troops now in the State, as I am that my political friends shall be protected. [illegible] I will [illegible] frankly and promptly with Gen. Ruger as I have [illegible] that I am as true now as in the [illegible] all days. Your friend and servant,

D. H. CHAMBERLAIN,
Governor of South Carolina.

Democratic Caucus—Trouble in Camp.

New York, Oct. [illegible]—The [illegible] publishes the following [illegible] which was reached is not known.

New York, Oct. 26.—It is reported that Blaine will not speak at Utica, feeling that his motives would be misunderstood if he should appear at the home of Conkling.

Murderer Confesses.

New York, Oct. 26.—A man named Maconcher has confessed to having murdered Maggie Bauer on Long Island, in August. During his confession Maggie's mother attacked him in court and he was rescued with difficulty. He subsequently came near being lynched by the people.

Municipal Election in Baltimore.

Baltimore, Oct. 26.—At the municipal election in this city for members of the first branch of the city council the Democrats elected their candidates in eighteen out of twenty wards, [illegible] being elected in the first and [illegible]. The vote was comparatively small. The Democratic majority will be about 6,000.

Political Canvass in Wisconsin.

Chicago, Oct. [illegible]—Gen. W. P. Frye of Maine is speaking at large meetings in Wisconsin and is enthusiastically received by the Republicans in that state, which is regarded as one of the [illegible] battle grounds of the election. Mr. Blaine is also advertised to speak at several points in that state. Col. Ingersoll, who has won the reputation of being one of the most effective orators in the campaign, will also speak there, and John A. Logan will take a few days' trip in the state. The campaign is being conducted most vigorously throughout the Northwest by both parties, and as election day approaches the excitement is continually increasing. Ingersoll's speech in the Exposition building here last Saturday night, when from 7,000 to 8,000 people attended the meeting, was a great success, and there will be another mass meeting in the same place next Saturday night, at which [illegible] Blaine will be the orator. Twenty thousand people heard Mr. Blaine in his speech at Peoria, Illinois, to-day. During the entire morning he held an impromptu reception at the home of Col. Ingersoll and was called on by hundreds of persons. Excursionists came in from the whole surrounding country. His speech was a magnificent effort and had an appreciable effect on the greenback men, many of whom were in the audience. In the evening he was serenaded and made a few felicitous remarks.

Garfield's Appointments Cancelled.

Chicago, Oct. [illegible]—The Tribune's Washington special says: Garfield's present campaign appointments are cancelled on account of the death of his young son, which occurred here to-day, and the general leaves for Ohio to-night.

Tilden's Letter.

Tilden's letter on Southern claims has excited general and earnest comment among the Democrats to-day. Several Southern men say it will not hurt him: first, because no one there will believe it possible for him to live up to it even if he were elected and should attempt to; and second, because all there know the Republicans were committed against such payments and dare not make them if they wanted. The army of claim agents here simply laugh at the letter as one which Tilden could not possibly act upon.

Anti-Grasshopper Convention.

Omaha, Oct. 26.—Govs. Pillsbury of Minnesota, Kirkwood of Iowa, Hardin of Missouri, Osborne of Kansas, Pennington of Dakota, Garber of Nebraska, and several eminent professors and gentlemen met here to-day for the purpose of discussing the modes and means of ridding the country of grasshoppers. A committee was appointed to prepare and present a series of resolutions to the country and a memorial to Congress.

The convention was serenaded during the evening at the hotel.

Omaha, Oct. 27.—The Convention of Governors concluded to-day after adopting resolutions looking toward the destruction of grasshoppers, recommending to the States and Territories interested the making of laws to encourage their extermination and other steps necessary to rid the country of the scourge. The President of the Convention was requested to draw up and present to the President of the United States a letter setting forth the urgent necessity of general legislation in behalf of the sections ravaged. The governors of Minnesota, Illinois, Iowa, Kansas, Nebraska, Missouri, Colorado, Wyoming, Dakota and Idaho were requested to transmit to the respective delegations a record of the proceedings of the convention and request them to urge on Congress speedy action in this matter. It is ascertained that the grasshoppers have not done the amount of damage imagined; that they can be encountered and exterminated with much less labor and difficulty than heretofore supposed, by united and concentrated efforts at the proper time. No fears need be entertained of serious results the coming spring.

THE EASTERN QUESTION.

London, Oct. 26.—The Financier says it is understood, in view of the possibility of further serious complications in the East, that the Peninsula and Oriental Company's steamship Cathay will embark a large number of troops at this port for Malta on the 28th inst.

A special to the Standard dated Belgrade Wednesday night, says the Turks captured Bojowischte this evening and are now advancing along both banks of the Moravia. Fighting is going on to-day on the slopes of Belgrade.

London, Oct. 26.—A Times dispatch from Vienna confirms the statement that the Porte had informed Gen. Ignatieff of its readiness to consent to a six weeks armistice if all the Powers wished it. The correspondent adds there would have been no difficulty in fulfilling this condition, but it turns out the Porte still insists on a stipulation that the Powers pledge themselves to prolong the armistice if peace is not made within the original period.

In spite of Ignatieff's conciliatory attitude little hope is entertained that Russia will accept this condition. It may however be expected that the Porte has not said its last word.

Belgrade, Oct. 26.—A correspondent of the Times telegraphs as follows: There has not been since the beginning of the war such a depression as is now existing, not only in Belgrade but throughout Servia. All ranks of people would now gladly welcome peace. It now appears that the Servians, with a view of intimidating the Turks, have exaggerated the number of Russian volunteers; not more than 10,000 have really arrived in the country. The apathy shown by Servia concerning the progress of the war is something that, under similar circumstances, could scarcely be found in any country of the world. Although reports of the capture of Djunis have been current twenty four hours, not a single Servian manifests the least curiosity about it. Yet a feeling of coming disaster is general. If Djunis really is taken Russia might well avail herself of her present influence to bring about an immediate peace, and from what I hear I shall not be surprised if she makes the attempt without assistance. Servia must to all appearances soon succumb. All correspondents agree as to the collapse of the spirit of the Servian population. They also confirm the news that a battle was progressing yesterday before Deligrade. From the fact that fighting is still going on in that direction it is inferred that perhaps the Turks have not gained possession of Djunis.

A Vienna correspondent of the Daily News reports that Gen. Ignatieff expressed doubts whether the conditions proposed by the Porte in connection with a short armistice would meet the approval of the Russian government. Diplomatists are actively endeavoring to induce the Porte to reconsider its reply and accept the armistice unconditionally. A compromise is not despaired of, as it is believed that Russia is unwilling to push things to extremes at the present moment.

A Belgrade dispatch to the Daily News says it is reported that Gen. Tchernayeff has demanded the resignation of the Servian Minister of War. The Minister of the Interior has gone to Deligrade to endeavor to effect a reconciliation.

The Belgrade correspondent of the Times states that in the country between Parthren and Deligrade and in the mountains near Saitschar there are 110,000 women and children almost naked and literally starving.

St. Petersburg, Oct. 26.—It is stated that the assassination of the Turkish representative at Tiflis was not due to political motives.

Bucharest, Oct. [illegible]—The Roumanian chambers has been convoked in extraordinary session on 2d November next.

London, Oct. 26.—It is believed an understanding will be reached on the question of armistice. Gen. Ignatieff, the Russian ambassador, will have another private audience with the Sultan Saturday.

Advices from Tiflis say the Turkish Consul General [illegible] his wife, whose assassination was announced yesterday, were murdered by robbers. Russia is making every effort to discover the murderers.

Fighting continues around Alexinatz and Deligrad.

The Montenegrins have cut off Mukhtar Pasha's communication with [illegible] and invested Nic[illegible].

Great distress prevails in Montenegro notwithstanding military successes, because of the necessity of maintaining large numbers of refugees. It is reported there are 11,000 houseless refugees dying of starvation in the mountains around Deligrade.

The Marquis of Hartington, leader of the liberals, has returned to London from Turkey. Yesterday he spoke at a private meeting of liberals and advocated immediate convocation of Parliament. The Marquis intimated his intention to oppose the policy of the government and support an autonomy in the Christian provinces of Turkey.

Belgrade, Oct. [illegible]—Gen. Novoselov has asked for reinforcements for the Servian army of [illegible], and Col. Becker has been ordered there with fresh troops.

An official bulletin states that on Tuesday the Turks made a desperate attempt to break through Novoselov's lines but were repulsed with great slaughter.

Constantinople, Oct. [illegible]—The [illegible] publishes the text of a speech [illegible] the Sultan [illegible]. The Sultan replied in a similar conciliatory strain. He hopes the Czar would contribute towards facilitating reforms.

The correspondent of the North German Gazette from St. Petersburg denies the more alarming reports, such as those of the concentration of large forces on the Turkish frontier and the calling out of the reserves. The writer says the army is not yet on a war footing; only preliminary measures being taken so that in case of need a considerable army could be in readiness without delay.

London, Oct. 26.—The Standard's dispatch from Ragusa says: The complete failure of Dervish Pasha's recent attack on the southern frontier of Montenegro ends the campaign for this year, as the winter [illegible] has commenced. Moukhtar Pasha [illegible] with [illegible] to Trebinje. The [illegible] is completely flooded. [illegible] is thoroughly demoralized. All the Circassians who joined the Turkish standard [illegible] home and refuse to return [illegible] the Turks. The Asiatic volunteers have been allowed to be disbanded.

The [illegible] Berlin dispatch states that Roumania has given assurances that her military measures are intended for no other purposes than ordinary autumnal practice. The six weeks armistice with prospect of prolongation by subsequent arrangement if necessary is now reported to be secured.

WASHINGTON CITY.

Dismissal of Revenue Agent A. B. Clark.

Washington, Oct. 26.—Revenue Agent Alvin B. Clark arrived from California to-day and on reporting to the department was discharged from service by order of the President. The grounds for dismissal are not made public, but it is understood to have been caused by Clark's participation in certain political movements and his failure to substantiate the charges made by him against Col. Eldridge and some prominent Californians last year. There seems to be no doubt that Elmer Washburne, chief of the secret service division of the treasury, will shortly be removed from office as soon as a successor is determined on. The President declined to see him when he called to-day, and he is virtually out of office now. Sec. Morrill informed him that the move was solely at the President's instance.

Reported Removal of Washburne.

Chicago, Oct. 26.—The Tribune's Washington special says: The reports circulated last night that Washburn, chief of the secret service, had been removed received little credit, or were believed to be a renewal of the old rumor by Walker and other detectives who have been so long trying to get his position. To-day, however, it appears that Secretary Morrill has been instructed by the President to demand his resignation. In reply to Washburne's request for the reasons of his removal the secretary informed Washburne he was personally thoroughly satisfied with his services, but he was powerless in the matter. This was yesterday. After another interview with the President, who insisted on the dismissal, Morrill again communicated the result to Washburn, reiterating his satisfaction with the latter, and said it was not his wish that the change should take place. He was not authorized to give the reasons, but believed the President thought Major Washburne had sustained such relations to persons who had been in conspiracy to defame him that he must have known of such conspiracy and had failed to inform the President of it. Although the President had been informed that no foundation existed for such belief, he persisted in his determination. It is perfectly understood here that the President's mind has been poisoned against Washburne by a set of men of no character or standing, and the wonder is that he yielded to such influence. Washburn denies emphatically that he ever engaged in such conspiracy or even knew that such existed, and that the whole story is so utterly absurd that it would not receive the least attention except for the fact that the President assigned it as the reason for the removal.

The Inter Ocean's correspondent had an interview with the President to-day, when the latter gave Mr. Washburn credit for having done excellent work, but insisted that he had not been personally loyal to him, and if not an active participant in the conspiracies of the Treasury Department had failed to shield him from them or to inform him of them. The President ridiculed the idea that the removal was accomplished by the influence of the whisky ring, by Sam Walker and others in whom he had no confidence whatever.

Washburn says he did not know of any conspiracies, and had he heard of them in the Treasury Department he would not have told the President of them. He had carefully avoided all political intrigues. Washburn's removal is generally regretted.

Rush of Visitors to the White House.

Washington, Oct. 26.—The number of visitors at the White House average 2,000 per day.

Fire.

Washington, Oct. 26.—This morning the residence of S. Taylor at Sutland, Prince George county, Md., was set on fire in the basement, and a family in the upper story narrowly escaped being burned to death. Loss $50,000.

Thanksgiving Proclamation by the President.

Washington, Oct. 26.—The President has issued the following Thanksgiving proclamation:

From year to year we have been accustomed to pause in our daily pursuits and set apart a time to offer thanks to Almighty God for the special blessings He has vouchsafed to us. With our prayers for the continuance thereof, we have at this time equal reason to be thankful for His continued protection and for the many material blessings which His bounty has bestowed. In addition to the favors accorded to us as individuals we have special occasion to express our hearty thanks to Almighty God that by His providence and guidance our government, established a century ago, has been enabled to fulfill the purposes of its establishment, offering an asylum to the people of every race, securing civil and religious liberty to all within its borders, meting out to every individual justice and equality before the law. It is moreover especially our duty to offer our humble praises to the Father of all mercies for the continuance of His divine favor to us as a nation and as individuals. By reason of all these considerations, I, Ulysses S. Grant, President of the United States, do recommend to the people of the United States to devote 30th day of November next to the expression of their thanks and prayer to Almighty God, and, laying aside their daily avocations and all secular occupations, to assemble in their respective places of worship and observe such day as a day of thanksgiving and rest.

In witness whereof I have hereunto set my hand this 26th day of October A. D. 1876. U. S. GRANT.

R. M. T. Hunter on the Payment of the Southern Claims.

Chicago, Oct. 26.—The Tribune's Washington special says a letter of R. M. T. Hunter of Virginia, written in 1873 upon the subject of paying the Southern claims, is revived here to-day. His plan, he claimed, would pay for both property and slaves and avoid restrictions of the 14th amendment. He proposed to proceed on the plan contained in the act of June 23d, 1836, for distributing surplus revenue among the several States. When the U. S. Government wished to transfer their surplus revenues to the states, finding that it had no authority to give money to States, it saved the constitutional point and eluded the difficulty by giving a transfer in the form of a loan or deposit without interest, to be resumed in certain amounts by the U. S. in a prescribed mode. He proposed that $400,000,000, the sum named by Lincoln as that he was willing to give the despoiled slaveholders, should be deposited with the States without interest and in some way loaned to the slaveholder proportionally to his losses. The writer went on to argue at great length in favor of this proposition, showing the entire constitutionality of the proceeding and its benefits to the Southern States. The letter concludes as follows: I do not propose either to attack the validity of the amendment or violate it. A loan of 400 millions to the slave holding States without interest, to be loaned again on the same terms without interest or with small interest, to be recalled at the pleasure of the United States, is no payment in whole or in part for losses sustained by slave holders, and if it be not, it is no violation of the 14th amendment, but in the present depression of former slave holders in the South the loan of this sum might go far to satisfy the claimants, although it would not pay them. The U. S. government might thus be relieved without any violation of the 14th or 15th amendments, and greatly to the advantage of all concerned.

Spanish Conspiracy Denounced.

Madrid, Oct. 24.—An official note has been published here denouncing the socialist conspiracy and the attempt at insurrection organized by Señors Ruiz Zorrilla and Salmeron. The note says four agents, namely Merelo, Anaya, [illegible] and Acosta, have been arrested and will be punished according to military law.

London, Oct. 24.—A dispatch from San Sebastian says the government note alluded to above has created excitement there, and numerous arrests of republicans have been made at Saragossa, Tarragona, Bilbao and Santander. It is rumored that bands have entered Spain on the Arragon frontier.

Religion in Spain.

Madrid, Oct. [illegible]—The Official Gazette publishes a circular strictly limiting nonconformist worship to the interior of chapels and cemeteries.

Spanish Extradition Treaty.

[illegible] dispatch from Madrid says the Spanish foreign minister proposes the conclusion of an extradition treaty with the United States.

Political Arrests in Madrid.

Eighteen Generals and ten other persons connected with politics have been arrested [illegible]. A royal order has [illegible] published [illegible] approving the action of the [illegible] Mahon toward Protestants.

A special to the Times from Barcelona says the republican conspiracy appears to have been more important than it was at first supposed. Forty persons have been arrested, including two ex-ministers.

Madrid, Oct. 26.—All the persons have been handed over to the ordinary tribunals of the government. Among the documents discovered are decrees signed by Ruiz Zorilla conferring public appointments on intended leaders of the insurrection, and bonds to be issued after the success of the movement. The men arrested were on the half pay list.

Spanish Navy to be Placed on a War Footing.

London, Oct. 26.—The Standard reports that Spain has decided to take steps toward placing her navy on a more efficient footing. All available ironclads will be immediately formed into a squadron, the first duty of which will be to act as a coast guard.

Bank of England.

London, Oct. 26.—Proportion of Bank of England reserve to liability 50⅜ per cent. Bullion in the Bank of England decreased £165,000 the past week.

Not Brown but Woebcken.

San Francisco, Oct. 26.—Ernest Brand, of the firm of Cellarius & Brand, wholesale liquor merchants, who was reported yesterday as having absconded taking with him funds of the firm, denies the statement. The absconder proves to be Wm. Woebcken, a former member of the firm.

Shipwreck.

A dispatch to the Merchant's Exchange from Santa Cruz reports the schooner Active ashore on Lighthouse Point near there. She will probably prove a total loss.

Unknown Body Found.

The body of an unknown man was found under the wharf near the corner of Drum and Vallejo streets this morning.

It has been threatening rain all day, the weather is cloudy with southeast wind and occasional light sprinkles.

Charles DeLong Dead.

Charles DeLong, late minister to Japan, died at Virginia City this morning of typhoid fever.

Counterfeiters Arrested.

San Francisco, Oct. 26.—This afternoon E. P. Rains, well known in this city and Nevada, and J. F. Hardie, were locked up on a charge of counterfeiting. Rains and Hardie are accused of being concerned with two men, Thompson and Wilson, who were held to answer before the grand jury two or three weeks ago for swindling a broker named Geo. Bailey out of $6,000 and a gold watch. The representations made by Thompson and Wilson at that time to Mr. Bailey were that they knew where a certain lot of bullion, stolen a long time ago from Wells Fargo & Co.'s treasure box, was buried, near Reno. To further deceive the gentleman, Wilson and Thompson exhibited a bogus bar of bullion, alleged to be worth $6,500. Captain Lees was satisfied that there were others implicated in the plot with Wilson and Thompson, and finally ascertained that E. P. Rains and John F. Hardie had something to do with it. The men were in Nevada at the time, and Capt. Lees swore out warrants for their arrest, and upon these warrants obtained requisitions from Gov. Irwin upon Gov. Bradley, of Nevada. He then sent Detective Robinson to Nevada with the requisitions, and four or five days ago the officer returned with Hardie. Last night the deputy sheriff of Reno county, Nevada, brought down Rains. Captain Lees has found eleven bogus bullion bars which these men had manufactured. These men are said to have swindled a number of persons in Nevada out of several thousand dollars. The amount of bail was fixed at $10,000 for each of the prisoners. The cases are set for Saturday.

Fatal Accident.

A fatal accident occurred on the line of the Piedmont street railroad between 1 and 2 o'clock this afternoon, by which S. E. Hastings, driver of one of the cars, was instantly killed. No witness of the accident has been found. The supposition is that the car ran off the track, and while Hutchings was endeavoring to lift it back again, the horse kicked him in the face and caused almost instant death.

Rain.

Chico, Oct. 26.—The rainfall last night was 56 100ths. It has been raining steadily all day and will continue through the night. This storm will damage to some extent the wheat not housed. It is impossible to learn the damage until the storm is over. Some grain not threshed, in stack, will sustain most damage.

UTAH.

Register and Receiver Suspended.

Salt Lake, Oct. 26.—The register and receiver of the land office at this place were to-day suspended from duty by orders from Washington, pending the investigation of their office. Col. M. M. Bane, secretary of the Territory, has been placed in charge.

NOVA SCOTIA.

Shipwreck.

Halifax, Oct. 26.—The schooner Thistle has arrived here from Fortune Bay, Newfoundland, and reports that on the 20th inst. the schooner Annapolis, produce laden, drove into the bay on beam ends. The bodies of several men were found lashed to the rigging, and no doubt all hands were lost.

CANADA.

Precautions against Indian Outbreaks.

Ottawa, Oct. 26.—Advices from Commissioner McLeod, Cypress Hill, announces the arrival there of 100 men mounted police force, and two guns. They winter at Cypress Hill Fort, and a similar force will be stationed at Fort McLeod, in view of the movements of the American Sioux. A large number of Indians have already congregated in the neighborhood of both forts.

WEST INDIES.

Spanish Troops for Cuba.

Havana, Oct. 26.—Another steamer from Spain arrived to-day with 1,000 troops.

OREGON.

The Green's ferry bridge has been formally accepted by Linn and Marion counties.

T. O. Wegener, of San Francisco, has been appointed a Commissioner of Deeds for Oregon.

Oregon City is now being stirred up on the question of a bridge across the river at that place.

Nothing can be saved of the steamer Bonanza but the boiler and machinery. The loss will be about $10,000.

The fruit drying company at Oregon City has discharged the Chinese and now employs white boys and girls.

The new school building at Harrisburg is finished and the school will be opened in it November 6th, under the charge of Professor Brown and Mrs. Train.

A. L. Moye, who is wanted in Linn county to answer some grave criminal charges, has been caught in Lowell, Michigan, and will be sent back to Oregon on requisition of the governor.

Some Chinamen stole a grindstone from Mr. O. Parrish, who resides about four miles from Albany. A thieving Chinaman is no stickler for niceties when on a foraging expedition.

The Statesman says: Mr. I. W. Kanoff, of Eugene City, has monopolized the entire hop crop of Linn county. He engaged eight cars to take them to Portland. He effected the purchase at about 12 cents per pound. The sale is estimated at 100,000 pounds. If prices are not satisfactory in San Francisco he will ship to New York.

The whirlwind which swept things so violently at Barlow's, in Clackamas county, on the 19th, seems to have spent a part of its force further up the valley. It broke upon the residence of Samuel Esnick, 5 miles northeast of Harrisburg, doing some damage; thence taking a northeasterly course it collided with the orchard of J. Tregoning, tearing large apple trees up and carrying them from one half to three-fourths of a mile. It unroofed M. Tregoning's barn, carrying three of the rafters over three fourths of a mile. It swath through the oak timber on Dry [illegible] from 35 to 40 feet wide, as if an ax had [illegible] bearing off the trees as if they had [illegible] shrubs. The Daily Oregonian.

FRIDAY MORNING, OCT. 27, 1876.

SHALL THE QUESTION BE REOPENED.

It is not because they delight in recalling the bitter memories of the civil war that conservative Republicans urge the attention of the public to the subject of the present condition of society and politics in the South. It is not because they wish to keep alive the animosities engendered in that strife. It is not because they desire to revive sectional feelings and prejudices between the North and the South. It is because they deprecate all these things and sincerely desire to see the end of the conflict between the North and the South, between the white and the colored man. The course of the Democratic majority in Congress, of the Democratic leaders throughout the country, and of the white-league Democrats of the South, all combine to make it plain that the elevation of the Democratic party to power in the nation would postpone the restoration of order in the South to an indefinite period, if indeed it did not lead to a renewal of the conflict of arms. The white-leaguers are evidently bent upon the reduction of the colored people to a state of practical serfdom. They are bent upon depriving them of their political and civil rights, and either retiring them altogether from the field of politics and from all fields of independent industry, or coercing them into the Democratic [illegible]. The Republicans demand that the Republic shall be a republic, not [illegible] as it used to be. They demand that the rights and privileges of [illegible] shall be secured to every citizen, [illegible] of race, color, or previous condition of servitude. This is only asking that the [illegible] shall be in fact what the [illegible] declares it to be; and [illegible] upon the enforcement of [illegible] in the South as well as in [illegible]

[illegible] need be told that if the South [illegible] in its course of disregarding [illegible] defying the Government, riding [illegible] over the negroes, suppressing [illegible] and a free ballot, the liberty-[illegible] of the North will compel [illegible], sooner or later, to [illegible] authority and protect its citizens [illegible] it require as many [illegible] did to suppress the great rebellion. That every person of common [illegible] understands. [illegible] of Tilden would give encouragement and strength to the spirit of [illegible] which already threatens to [illegible] such a conflict; and it is the [illegible] that, which prompts conservative Republicans—Republicans who [illegible] the bloody-shirt policy of the [illegible] party—to call upon the [illegible] to the standard of Gov. [illegible] will certainly pre[illegible] [illegible] of reopening the [illegible] "bloody chasm" be closed, [illegible] and deepened. Let the [illegible] of the war be healed [illegible]. Let the Southern [illegible] understand that they must cease [illegible], not that they may [illegible] in it. Let the people of [illegible] desire peace and order [illegible] of [illegible] violence in any effort [illegible] to suppress violence and [illegible] they must submit to a [illegible] murderous mob backed by [illegible]

[illegible] has had war enough. It [illegible] bled enough. It has had [illegible] enough. It wants no [illegible]. It wants and must have industry and production, not [illegible] dissipation and destruction. [illegible] wants to be rebuilt, and the [illegible] to see it rebuilt and prosper[illegible] happy. This is the feeling entertained by conservative Republicans and [illegible]. That the election of [illegible] forward these ends there [illegible] ground to doubt. That the [illegible] Tilden would obstruct their [illegible], if indeed it did not precipitate another conflict, seems at least [illegible]. Conservative and patriotic [illegible] should carefully consider the [illegible] themselves there is [illegible] putting the country back to [illegible] to 1861, before they cast [illegible] for Tilden. The appeal to [illegible] not for the sake of the North, [illegible] can take care of itself. It is [illegible], lacerated South that cries [illegible]. Shall we lend a helping hand, [illegible] plunge the Southern people [illegible] the miseries they have fool[illegible] on themselves? That is the [illegible] friend of the South has [illegible] by his ballot at the approaching [illegible]

[illegible] those Democrats who used to [illegible] so much over Helper's proscriptive doctrines to say to the following [illegible] clipped from a late number of the [illegible] News and Courier:

UNTIL FURTHER NOTICE I WILL [illegible] applications from those seeking employment on Mondays, Wednesdays, and Fridays, [illegible] employers for straight-out Democrats [illegible] on Tuesdays, Thursdays, and [illegible] I am prepared to furnish Democrats [illegible], at reasonable wages, to any [illegible]'s notice. To employ Republicans [illegible] no longer pays. It is a [illegible] will be held to strict accountability. R. [illegible] Broad street.

[illegible] MERCHANTS, WHARF OWNERS, AND [illegible] generally—The Workingmen's Democratic [illegible] are now prepared to furnish [illegible] able bodied men for any kind of [illegible] at their hall, Queen street, near [illegible] to 12 M., 2 to 6 and at 7 to 9 P. M.

[illegible] TO BUY FROM—WHERE DO YOU [illegible] MEAT?—To the Democratic public: [illegible] signed, butchers in the Charleston market, [illegible] supporters of the cause of [illegible] N AND GOOD GOVERNMENT, respectfully solicit the custom of their Democratic fellow [illegible]

[illegible] KEEPERS CAN GET THEIR MEATS [illegible] "Democratic Headquarters," stalls Nos. [illegible] 57 and 58, Lower Market. Also Nos. 9 and 10 [illegible] Market, from 4 cents to 12½ cents per pound. [illegible] Democratic money alone we want, but [illegible] MPTON and REFORM.

The charge that the Southern Democrats [illegible] resolved if possible to close all the avenues of business and employment to Republicans is fully proved by these advertisements.

The Standard affects to think the letter in [illegible] day's OREGONIAN in which a Democrat [illegible] his reasons for supporting Hayes and Wheeler, was written by a Republican. The [illegible] mistakes altogether. The letter was [illegible] by a life-long Democrat. And it will [illegible] on election day that other Democrats [illegible] Portland share the writer's fears of the [illegible] quences of electing Tilden, and will sink [illegible] party preferences for the present in order to [illegible] the country from a reopening of the strife between North and South. We were asked yesterday on the street whether that letter was not written by a certain Democrat of some prominence in this city, whose name was mentioned to us. On being answered in the negative, our interrogator replied that the reason he supposed the person mentioned to be the author of the letter was, that he heard him express exactly the same sentiments a day or two ago. We can tell the Standard that not a few Democrats, loving their country more than their party, are seriously inquiring whether the crisis has not arisen which requires them to support the Republican candidates for President and Vice President.

A singular state of affairs is presented in the Seventh Congression District of Massachusetts. Tarbox, Democrat, who beat Dr. Ayers, the Republican candidate, in 1874, is the Democratic nominee again; Ben Butler is the Republican candidate; and Judge Hoar, always hitherto a straight Republican, is running as an Independent. Thus far there is nothing remarkable, since it is natural for honest Republicans to desire the defeat of Butler and Butlerism. But the strange part is that it seems to be conceded on all hands that Butler's hopes of election are based on the probability of his receiving Democratic votes enough to give him a majority despite the loss of the Republican votes that Hoar will carry away. Think of Democrats voting for Ben Butler and actually electing him to Congress!

Of late it has been the habit of those who cast horoscopes on the coming election, to set down South Carolina as doubtful, notwithstanding the large Republican majorities heretofore given in that State. The following excerpt from a speech recently delivered by General Gary, one of the leaders of the color-line Democracy of South Carolina, explains how it happens to be a doubtful State:

> If any one tries to prevent you from carrying the State for Tilden and Hampton, the person or persons who so try must be removed out of the way by the use of sufficient force, and if it becomes necessary to shoot them in order to remove them, then we must be prepared to shoot, rather than be prevented from redeeming the State from Radical rule.

Don't forget that the Democratic organs urge the election of Lane to Congress because the House is Democratic and it is the interest of Oregon to have her member in the majority. Don't forget that at the ratio of gain in Indiana and Ohio, the Republicans will have a majority of not less than 20 in the next Congress. If you think it is important to have a majority member—and certainly it is important—the way to secure that advantage is to elect Richard Williams.

Indications point to the defeat of Packard, the Republican candidate for Governor of Louisiana, though there is a fair prospect of that State's casting its vote for Hayes and Wheeler. That is just as it should be. Mr. Nichols, the Democratic candidate, is said to be a pretty good man; and it is reasonably certain he is a better man than Packard.

Machine politics, political spoils for political work, the payment of two billions of Southern claims, the general derangement and confusion of the National finances, the continuation of the reign of terror in the South—these are what they bid for who vote for Tilden and Hendricks. "Dost like the picture?"

Murat Halstead, editor of the Cincinnati Commercial, makes a bullseye when he cites from Tilden's letter of acceptance the declaration of the great Tammany Hall reformer that the pledges of candidates amount to nothing. What do all Tilden's pledges amount to, putting his own construction on them?

Hon. J. H. Baker, Republican member of Congress from the thirteenth district of Indiana, who carried his district in 1874 by only 58 majority, has been re-elected by a majority of 2,300. That is a specimen of the Democratic gains.

THE TORCHLIGHT PROCESSION.

The grand torchlight procession to take place in this city by the various Hayes and Wheeler clubs and other organizations has been postponed until Monday evening, November 6th, at which time one of the most imposing demonstrations ever witnessed in Oregon will wind up the campaign. The extremely inclement weather, together with the fact that some organizations outside the city desirous of participation could not be present this evening, has induced the postponement. The extensiveness of the preparations has also made more time necessary, and the opportunity now given to complete these arrangements insures the greatest success, and the friends of republicanism throughout the country may prepare to hear of the largest and most enthusiastic political gathering ever assembled on this northwestern coast, and one which will excite an ardor that will not abate until the next day's work is done and the bright young State of Oregon has again been placed in the Republican ranks and forever redeemed from the hands of the Bourbons.

THE COURTS.

STATE CIRCUIT COURT—SHATTUCK, J.

THURSDAY, Oct. 26, 1876.

Seth L. Pope and Levi Hexter, jurors excused for the term.

State vs Lee Hing and Shut Goy; defendants arraigned and plea of not guilty entered.

Eilef Ellerson vs W. H. Prettyman et al; verdict for defendants.

S. W. R. Jones, guardian, vs Alice A. Fain, administratrix; verdict for defendant.

T. Dittenhoeffer a juror, excused for the term.

State vs W. C. Morand and R. C. Wood; Motion to dismiss the indictment against R. C. Wood for the purpose of using her as a witness; motion allowed. Motion to dismiss indictment against W. C. Morand; motion overruled.

State vs W. C. Morand; jury empaneled and cause on trial.

Antone Oblasser, a native of Austria, admitted to citizenship.

FAREWELL PARTY.—Last evening quite a number of ladies and gentlemen assembled at the residence of J. W. Going, Esq., on Seventh street, where the time was spent pleasantly for several hours in local intercourse and dancing. Prof. Bray's orchestra produced excellent music while Mr. Manning acted as prompter, giving satisfaction. The party was given to Miss Mary T. Sheridan, who has been sojourning with the family. The lady will leave for San Francisco on the outgoing steamer, and the compliment was well bestowed.

It is generally conceded that J. Kohn keeps the finest stock of clothing in the city.

RESOLUTIONS OF ENDORSEMENT.

HALL OF WILLAMETTE ENGINE CO. No. 1,
PORTLAND, October 6, 1876.

At a regular meeting of Willamette Engine Co No. 1, held at the company's hall October 5, 1876 Chief Engineer J. H. Lyon was nominated for the office of Chief Engineer of the Portland Fire Department and the following resolutions unanimously adopted:

Resolved, That our fellow member and present efficient Chief Engineer J. H. Lyon is the unanimous choice of this company for Chief Engineer of the Portland Fire Department and this company does hereby nominate him for such office.

Resolved, That the uniform courtesy displayed by Chief Engineer Lyon, and the able, fearless and impartial manner in which he has performed the duties of his position, merits his unanimous re-election.

P. D. W. HARDENBERG, Prest. pro. tem.
Attest: M. F. SELSCHE, Secretary.

If you want a good durable overcoat or ulster for little money go to Kohn's.

Oh! such a lunch, we got it at Barnes', Central Market.

Captains and pilots will note the fact that Peter Wilhelm has fitted up two rooms for their especial use at the Fountain, corner Ash and First streets. English papers on file shortly and everything cosy.

AMUSEMENTS.

THE MARIONETTES.—There was a perfect ovation last evening at New Market Theater. Col. Mason and staff, the 21st infantry band and a large number of the citizens of Vancouver, came over on the steamer to attend the performance. On leaving the boat the band marched down street playing a lively march, followed by crowds. The large auditorium was crowded to overflowing, many being unable to obtain seats. The total receipts for the evening was in the vicinity of $570. This evening will be the last appearance of the Marionettes, as they leave by steamer to-morrow morning for San Francisco.

ORO FINO THEATER.—"Rosedale" was rendered last evening at Oro Fino theater to a large and appreciative audience. The play was well mounted and rendered in a very satisfactory manner to the audience. Owing to the announcement that a grand ratification meeting would be held this evening, the management was obliged to make different arrangements, and will give no performance. The Oro Fino theater being engaged to the Republican party for their regular meeting, their next and last performances will be given at New Market theater to-morrow afternoon and evening. The afternoon performance will consist of "East Lynn, or the Elopement." In the evening will be presented the great Irish drama by Dion Boucicault, entitled "Arrah na Pogue." Mr. Sawtelle will appear as "Shaun, the Post," and Mrs. Sawtelle as "Arrah Meelish." Monday morning the Sawtelle company will leave for the Sound, opening in Victoria Wednesday, Nov. 1st.

BENEFIT TO MRS. MCCABE.—One day last week a laboring man named Barnard McCabe while endeavoring to stop a runaway team received serious injuries, from the effects of which he subsequently died. Mr. McCabe left a wife and several small children in very destitute circumstances, who are now in the city. Learning of the destitution of this family, Mr. D. G. Waldron, the efficient and thorough courteous manager of the Royal Marionettes, has generously volunteered to give a performance this (Friday) evening, at New Market Theater, for the benefit of the bereaved widow and her children. Every dollar of the proceeds will be donated to Mrs. McCabe, and will be placed in the hands of Mayor Chapman for that purpose. The members of the Masonic and Odd Fellow fraternities, of all the benevolent societies of the city, and also all charitably disposed persons, are cordially invited to co-operate with Mayor Chapman and Manager Waldron. Portlanders never turn away from the extended hand of charity. Let the house be crowded. Reserved seats can be obtained to-day at Gray's music store. The box sheet will be under the management of Mayor Chapman.

THE TERRITORIES.

A lodge of the Improved Order of Red Men will soon be organized at Seattle.

Val Wildman, having just finished a fifty days' term in the Seattle jail for setting up a lottery, will now engage in the safer business of selling beer.

Twenty-five men and firms in Seattle pay taxes on more than $10,000 each, twelve pay on more than $20,000, three on more than $50,000, and one on more than $100,000.

A public meeting of the citizens of Polk county is called to convene at Monmouth at 10 o'clock next Saturday, October 28, 1876, to discuss the subject of education, and to decide whether or not the Christian college in that city is to be kept up in the future. The meeting will be addressed by L. L. Rowland, LL. D., State superintendent of public instruction; Hon. S. F. Chadwick, Secretary of State; Hon. W. D. Fenton and Hon. Stephen Staats.

THE AMERICAN CENTENNIAL, 1876.

Wheeler & Wilson Victorious!

Again the Wheeler & Wilson Sewing Machines triumph over the world. The Centennial Commission have officially announced the awards and decreed for the New Wheeler & Wilson Machine two Diplomas of Honor and two Medals of Merit. This is a double victory, and the highest award which it was in the power of the Centennial authorities to bestow. No other sewing machine received such a recognition. More than thirty of the best producers of machines in this and other countries entered for competition, and at Philadelphia in 1876, as at Vienna in 1873, and at Paris in 1867, Wheeler & Wilson head the list. After a careful, rigorous and exhaustive examination, the judges unanimously decided that the superior excellence of these machines deserved more than one medal or diploma, and, consequently, they recommend two of each. The Centennial Commission unanimously ratified the action of the judges, and the public will indorse the decision of these ablest of mechanical experts. A claim of equally distinguished honor for any other sewing machine is only an attempt to hoodwink the people. Read the following, which stamps the "New Wheeler & Wilson" as the Standard Sewing Machine of the world.

[From the Official Report.]

AWARDS TO WHEELER & WILSON.

1. A medal and Diploma for "The New Wheeler & Wilson Sewing Machine," for the following reasons:

> "A Lock Stitch Sewing Machine unsurpassed in the fine workmanship of its parts, great originality, great adaptability to different kinds of work both in cloth and leather, beauty of stitch, ease and rapidity of motion, and completeness of display."

2. A Medal and Diploma for "The New Wheeler & Wilson Sewing Machine" for Leather, for "Superior quality of work in Leather Stitching."

FIRST PREMIUM HEALING SALVE.

Dr. Halpruner received the first premium at the State Fair for his patent healing salve and corn remedy. An infallible cure for cuts, burns, bruises, boils, felons, blood poison, white swelling, ulcers, sores, &c., also for corns and bunions. The salve is for sale by all druggists, price 50 cents per box, and manufactured by the Doctor only. Corner of Eighth and Market streets.

W. L. ADAMS, M. D., A. M., LL. D., corner of First and Salmon streets, is curing the most inveterate chronic diseases of all kinds at a low price, by medicated, electric lightning cream baths, and by combining the German and French with the American improved practice, mixed with a little common sense. His treatment is, in the main, entirely original, and works almost miracles, as his numerous patients will attest. Is extraordinarily successful in treating female complaints.

Sore eyes speedily relieved. The worst form of piles cured, and the most malignant cancers eradicated root and branch without the use of the knife, or the money refunded.

NOTICE.

The undersigned in taking leave of Portland returns his sincere thanks for the liberal patronage that has been bestowed, and would bespeak for his successors a continuance of the same.

Emaciation a Remediable Defect.

Leanness not only detracts from personal comeliness, but is an index that the blood is deficient in nutritive properties. To remedy emaciation, enrich and purify the blood, which will then develop healthy flesh. This object is most readily attained through the agency of the great blood fertilizer and depurent, Hostetter's Stomach Bitters, which enables the stomach to extract from the food taken into it ample nourishment for the system, removes all obstacles to complete digestion and assimilation, and by stimulating the kidneys to vigorous action, incites those organs to strain from the vital fluid in its passage through them impurities which would otherwise impair its flesh-creating qualities. Not only do the Bitters promote the development of solid fiber, but they also increase muscular power and elasticity, overcome nervousness, banish mental depression, and protect the system against disease.

Is it not about time we should change drinks? We have been treated to crooked whisky long enough, and now will indulge only in Noble Whisky, as sold by Millard & Vandschuyver.

Teeth in Ruins,

Are a sure drawback on personal appearance and personal comfort. Therefore, keep them in good repair with that established antidote for all the diseases that assail them, fragrant SOZODONT.

JOINTS AND MUSCLES, STIFF AND PAINFUL with Rheumatism and Gout, are promptly relieved by GLENN'S SULPHUR SOAP. Local diseases of the skin and defects of the complexion are also remedied by this Standard Article.

Fevers seldom make an attack without warning, and may often be thrown off by soaking the feet in warm water, wrapping up warm in bed, and taking two or three of Parson's Purgative Pills.

A missionary, just returned, says he regards Johnson's Anodyne Liniment as beyond all price, and efficacious beyond any other medicine. It is adapted to a great variety of special cases, and is the best pain curer in the world.

August Flower.

The most miserable beings in the world are those suffering from Dyspepsia and Liver Complaint. More than seventy-five per cent. of the people in the United States are afflicted with these two diseases and their effects: such as Sour Stomach, Sick Headache, Habitual Costiveness, Palpitation of the Heart, Heart-burn, Water brash, Gnawing and Burning Pains at the Pit of the Stomach, Yellow Skin, Coated Tongue and Disagreeable Taste in the Mouth, Coming up of Food after Eating, Low Spirits, etc. Go to your Druggist and get a sample Bottle for a bit; large size 75 cents. Try it—Two doses will relieve you. Agents Crane & Brigham, Wholesale Druggists, San Francisco.

DISCOVERY.

Dr. Halpruner wishes us to announce to the public that his operations and medicines for the treatment of CORNS, BUNIONS, etc., are all of his own discovery, and are entirely different from any other chiropodist's treatment on the coast. Persons afflicted with CORNS, etc., can have them treated at their residences or place of business by sending their order through the postoffice, or leaving them at J. Kohn's clothing store. Satisfaction guaranteed or no charge. Terms reasonable.

THE VOTERS OF COWLITZ AND WAHKIAKUM COUNTIES

ILWACO PACIFIC CO W T Oct 9

The WEEKLY OREGONIAN of October 7th contains an address to the independent [illegible] of your counties signed by M S Griswold, chairman of the committee on nomination [illegible] Pacific County Independent Convention. In this address Mr Griswold says [illegible] avowed object of this candidate (C A Reed) [illegible] lawless legislation, the nature of which [illegible] to be a threat against property and vested rights." In Pacific county it is [illegible] good that such a charge has no [illegible] in truth, and [illegible] refutation [illegible]; but in the [illegible] be found to credit Mr Griswold's statement. I desire first to call your attention to the fact that Mr Griswold, in making this charge leaves you altogether in the dark as to the nature or character of the proposed legislation which he says is my avowed object If there was even the shadow of foundation for such a charge why does he not out with it like a man so that you can get an intelligent understanding of the matter upon which to base your action at the polls on the 7th day of November next. But he studiously avoids any such explanation for fear of exposing the secrets of the little squad of men for whom he assumes to speak. The pronunciamento jingle of words in which this gentleman indulges himself when he says threats against property and vested rights French socialism American soil and the preponderance of a foreign vote etc. bears the indelible impress of the political trickster and demagogue In regard to the preponderance of the foreign vote in this county such is not the fact while it is true we have quite a number of citizens in this county of foreign birth who are as a class industrious useful and enterprising, and who in point of intelligence and integrity of character will bear favorable comparison with the average citizens of this county And now as to my avowed object for it is true that I have one and do not hesitate to say what that object is As a citizen and taxpayer of Pacific county my object now is and has been in time past to promote the general prosperity of the county by giving proper encouragement to the development to each and every one of its rich and varied natural resources to use my best endeavors to hasten the survey of agricultural lands and thereby open them up to actual settlers who come to cultivate the soil to aid in the construction of public roads whenever they are found practicable, and in cases where there is too little local labor to insure their speedy construction if there is no authority in law by which the county commissioners are justified in appropriating money then I am in favor of legislation to enable them to do so in all cases where the advantages to be desired will fully justify the outlay What I have said in regard to this matter is, and shall be my object for all the counties which compose this council district If elected to the office for which I am nominated my object shall be first to make myself thoroughly acquainted with the legislative wants of the whole district without regard to the particular county in which I happen to reside especially with the great salmon fishing interests now only partially developed, the greater portion of which are located within the limits of this council district I shall deem it my imperative duty to visit and consult representative men who are engaged in that branch of industry and solicit advice and information in regard to what legislation if any, is necessary to secure its permanent prosperity Having secured proper knowledge of the legislative wants of the district, you can rest assured that no effort shall be spared on my part by all honorable means to promote the best interests of the whole district.

[illegible] of ease prevailing notwithstanding the recent heavy demand made upon the market by the grain trade. This demand has been in a [illegible] at measure supplied. Coin importations from San Francisco and other points, which, together with moderately free receipts from interior merchants and others, have kept the accumulation of capital here about up to the figures attained before the season set in. The rates for loans and discounts have fluctuated but little, and the m[illegible] apparent change has been from a general condition of dullness to one of greater activity, and the turning into the channels of actual circulation [illegible] that for many months had been hoarded.

There is reported a very fair supply of capital in San Francisco to meet the enormous demand made by the wheat exporting business, and the millions required for that purpose are forthcoming, with no other visible effect upon other departments than a slight depreciation in mining stocks and a somewhat [illegible] surplus in the banks. At the East an improved condition of trade is noticed in nearly all our exchanges and many entertain the hope that the dark period which precedes the day in commercial affairs has passed, and that a new and brighter era of prosperity will soon dawn on the nation There is every indication that if our national finances are placed upon a secure basis that our position as the leading commercial and manufacturing nation of the world will soon be a realized fact. Confidence the lack of which has in a great measure delayed a revival in business, seems fully restored and it is doubtful if those who may have control of the financial affairs of the nation during the next four years will have the temerity to take any measure by which the national credit may be impaired which as the recent successful bond negotiation shows, is in a most satisfactory condition
